International Design Competition

JUNE 2013 – ATHENS GREECE

WWW.MEA2013.GR

Mediterranean Sustainable Architecture 2013 is a new international design competition covering all buildings that have been completed during the last five years in the Mediterranean zone.

This competition is an opportunity to point out innovative sustainable design projects realized around the Mediterranean basin, where climate and economic conditions are akin. Its goal is to enhance exchange of ideas on environmentally conscious design, enriching the ecological sustainability approach. It also aims at highlighting projects that follow the principles of sustainability in architecture mainly through environmentally responsive passive design solutions.

You are cordially invited to attend the

MEDITERRANEAN SUSTAINABLE ARCHITECTURE MEA 2013 AWARDS' CEREMONY

on WEDNESDAY 27TH NOVEMBER 2013, at 7pm

Venue: Athens Cervantes Institute (23, Mitropoleos st., Sintagma)

Following the Ceremony, we will attend the Exhibition of all the MEA award-winning architecture projects which will be held at the "European Centre" (74 Mitropoleos str., Athens).
Exhibition will remain in view from 27 November - 8 December.
